

PRIVACY NOTICE

What data do I collect?

If you email me the data you supply will be used to answer your enquiry. The data includes your name, email address, your profession, your message, your IP address and browser will be collected by wix.com which is the platform on which the website is created.

If you ask me to keep your data in order to contact you in future that is what will be done.

What do I do with your data?

Your data is used in the way in which you request I use it. If you email me or message me I use your data to contact you and reply to your enquiry.

Wix.com run the website : please see the wix.com privacy policy here: <https://www.wix.com/about/privacy>

How do I collect information?

You send it to me by message to website or email.

Where do I store information?

If you email me or message me the information you send me is stored in the email systems.

How do I use your data?

I use the data to contact you in relation to your enquiry.

Your rights?

Just let me know if you do not wish me to retain your email or message data and I'll delete it all.

Data retention?

Your message stays in my message account for up to 2 years from the last point of contact with you.